CUPE 5430 BARGAINING UPDATE

Dear Valued Member:

The bargaining survey was sent out to you by email on February 25, 2022. There were some technical issues, which were resolved, giving you the ability to complete your survey. Just a reminder, the deadline to complete the survey is March 14, 2022.

If you have not yet received one please email cupe5430information@gmail.com and the survey link will be provided to you.

The fillable form for bargaining proposals is available on the CUPE 5430 website. To access this form, you must be a member. If you haven't signed up to view member documents, please do so on our website under tab called "member sign up".

Once we verify you are a CUPE member, the bargaining proposal form can be accessed under the "Bargaining Information 2022" box on the right-hand side of the main page. Signing up as a member on our website will give you continued access to documents available to "members only".

Deadline to submit your bargaining proposals is April 4, 2022.

L-R: Rebecca Noble (R3), Lori Sutherland (Staff), Linda Renkas (VP), Linda Vancuren (R1), Nancy Black (RecSec), Corinne Sopel (R5), Bashir Jalloh (President), Rhonda Osipoff (Treas), Adrienne Gardiner (R4), Mira Lewis (Staff). Missing: Sharon Paul (R2), Debbie Mihail (Staff).

In preparation to review the survey and proposals, your Bargaining Committee has attended training provided by CUPE National. Although it was a long two and half days, we are not nearly finished. The next round of bargaining will be a crucial one and we will work diligently and continuously to make sure we have the best team at the table. CUPE National has committed to continue to provide education for the Bargaining Committee.

We will be looking to you, our members, for your support and guidance as we go through the process and we will be keeping you informed at every step of the way.

Our goal, as always, is for us all to be "Working Together for Better", wages, language and working conditions!

In solidarity,
Your Bargaining Committee
